EXPECTATIONS

It is expected that all managers abide by the Official Regulations and Playing Rules of Little League Baseball, as well as the Rancho Cordova Little League bylaws.

Expectations for all managers include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Attend the Manager Meeting, Rules Meeting and Safety Meeting (all conducted prior to the season) and apply information and directives from those meetings as appropriate during the season
- Perform field maintenance before and after practices and games as directed
- Manage the team parents' responsibilities to the league regarding volunteer work and fundraisers
- Respect all league members, including league officers, umpires, managers, coaches, players & spectators
- Take responsibility for coaches, players and spectators and their conduct before, during & after games and intervene as necessary to uphold a positive culture
- Train the players in the fundamentals of teamwork, good sportsmanship and discipline
- Honor the rules and the spirit of the game

I agree to abide by the expectations stated above for managers in Rancho Cordova Little League.

Thank you for your interest in Rancho Cordova Little League!

*You are the most important person in our organization.
You determine the kind of experience that our athletes have during the season.*

- RCLL President and Board of Directors

Note: The RCLL Board of Directors and League Commissioners will review all candidates, then appoint and notify managers prior to the start of season events. Managers are appointed on an annual basis. If you had a team last season, it does not guarantee that you will have a team this season. Should a situation arise in which your actions are deemed not in the best interests of Rancho Cordova Little League, the Board of Directors has the power to remove you as a manager.
